SIX MEN INJURED IN STRIKE CLASHES

STRIKEBREAKERS AND PICKETS IN BATTLE; FEAR RACE RIOTING

Four Heavily Armed Negroes Arrested Following Outbreak in Youngstown----Union Man is Fatally Stabbed---Guns Taken By Assailants Loaded With Dum-Dum Bullets.

YOUNGSTOWN, Oct. 22.—Fear was expressed today that the most serious trouble of the steel strike here so far—two clashes in which negro strikebreakers and union pickets figured—may lead to race riots. Three shot and three stabbed, more or less seriously wounded, was the toll in this morning's fighting. The fracas was between negro strikebreakers and union pickets who claim they asked the negroes where they were going. Without warning, it is alleged that three negroes pulled revolvers and fired at random into the bunch of pickets, shooting John Pavlovitch through the nose and leg; John Gertcher through the left leg, and John Bartuzel in the hand. Police brought in four heavily armed negroes in connection with the shooting, their guns bearing mute evidence of recent usage.

Union Picket Stabbed Twice

In a knife wielding fray, Andy Humanic, a picket, was stabbed in the shoulder and over the heart, and probably fatally wounded. He was rushed to city hospital. James Jackson, negro, confessed to the cutting. Jackson was cut in the back twice in some unaccountable manner. Sam Molday, striker, was cut on the hand. When searched no weapons were found on the pickets. Prompt action by the police is believed to have resulted in the capture of the assailants in both fights. The guns taken from the men were all new and of almost identical make and were fully loaded with dum-dum bullets, police say, and they are endeavoring to find out where the men got the weapons. Abe Iroavitch, a soldier-policeman, was overpowered and beaten by strikers with his own mace last night, according to the police, when he attempted to shield a negro strikebreaker from attack by the strikers as they were taking the negro from a street car on Steel street. At a meeting last night strike officials appointed a committee to wait on Mayor Craver to ask him that police be withdrawn from the strike zone and that they be allowed to stop and question men entering the mills.

Police Handling Situation

COLUMBUS, Oct. 22.—"Youngstown has an excellent police force and we believe they will be able to handle the situation there," said Chas. B. Morris, secretary to Governor Cox, when told of the early morning trouble between picketing strikers and alleged negro strikebreakers in the Youngstown steel strike district. PITTSBURGH, Oct. 22.—Extra guards and policemen were on duty again in the Braddock steel mill district today to prevent a recurrence of yesterday's rioting. One man was in a Braddock hospital today suffering from a bullet wound and more than 30 others were nursing cuts and bruises sustained during the two riots. The authorities believed that the attacks by the strikers on the men leaving the mills had been carefully planned. There had been no trouble in Braddock and the situation there was so quiet that the special policemen had been dismissed. The workers, who had been housed in the mills, were allowed to go to their homes for the first time yesterday. Twenty men were arrested and given hearings today on the charge of inciting riots.

CITY SEEKS TO BE SEPARATE HEALTH UNIT

Request Filed with State Board by Solicitor Thompson.

LAW GIVES RIGHT

Pointed Out East Liverpool Possesses All Requirements.

Request that East Liverpool be made a separate health district in itself when the new Hughes health law becomes operative January 1, has been filed by City Solicitor R. G. Thompson, acting for the board of health, with Dr. Allen W. Freeman of Columbus, state health commissioner. Under the new state health act every city of less than 25,000 population must merge with the county health district after the first of the year. Exception to this provision can be taken in the case of cities now possessing facilities to properly preserve the health of the community. East Liverpool can meet every requirement of the state law, health officials here stated Wednesday. In addition to a garbage disposal plant costing $100,000 and a filtration plant costing $500,000, the city supports a chemical laboratory and research equipment for testing butter fats, foods and for taking bacteriological tests. It also supports a sanitary officer giving undivided attention to the health of the community and a health officer. J. T. Croxall, president of the city board of health, is a member of the executive committee of the new Columbiana county district health board. A budget calling for the appropriation of $40,000 for the establishment and maintenance of the new organization has just been drawn by the county board and filed with the county commissioners.

Mayor's Proclamation Calls Attention to Change In Time.

With the Daylight Saving act expiring at 2 a. m. Sunday Mayor J. S. Wilson Wednesday issued a proclamation asking local residents to turn their clocks back one hour before retiring Saturday night. Under recent enactment by congress the measure was revoked over the veto of President Wilson to pass into history, October 28. The Pennsylvania railroad and local traction lines will set their clocks to coincide with the movement. No changes in train or interurban schedules are contemplated, it was stated Wednesday. The Daylight Saving law went into effect as a wartime measure the last Sunday in March, 1918.

HARRY ELLWELL, POTTER, TAKEN INTO CUSTODY WHILE AT WORK

Eleven Baskets of Ware Missing from Chester Pottery.

CONFESSION IS MADE

Accused Held for Court; Fails to Furnish $2,000 Bond.

On a charge of grand larceny, in connection with the disappearance of approximately $200 worth of table ware, from the Taylor, Smith & Taylor pottery, Chester, last Sunday night, Harry Ellwell, aged about 23, of Thompson avenue, East Liverpool is a prisoner in the Hancock County jail at New Cumberland, Wednesday awaiting action by the grand jury. Ellwell, a warehouseman at the Taylor, Smith & Taylor pottery, was arrested while at work Tuesday afternoon by Chief of Police Doby of Chester and Constable Hiram Allison. Arraigned before Justice Arthur G. Allison Tuesday evening, Ellwell admitted, it is claimed, entering the pottery Sunday night, and carrying away eleven baskets of ware, taking them to his home in East Liverpool. He was held for investigation by the grand jury under $2,000 bond. In default he was taken to the Hancock county jail Wednesday morning, where he was turned over to Sheriff Armour S. Cooper. Ellwell's arrest uncovered one of the boldest robberies ever called to the attention of the Hancock county officials, they claim. Ellwell, by reason of his occupation, he had access to the finished ware in the plant just before it was packed and made ready for shipment. Last Sunday night he is alleged to have hired a skiff in East Liverpool and rowed up the river to a point near the pottery, where he left the boat. Going to the pottery, he experienced but little trouble in gaining an entrance, one of the doors having been left unlocked. He admitted, the police say, to having carried eleven baskets of ware from the warehouse out of the pottery, down over the river bank, where it was loaded into the skiff. The loot included 120 dozen of cups, it was said. The boat was then rowed down the river to Jethro, where with the aid of an expressman, the stolen crockery was taken to Ellwell's home in Thompson avenue. Ellwell was at work Tuesday afternoon, when the Chester police appeared at the pottery and placed him under arrest. He was taken to the Chester jail where he was held for a preliminary hearing. COUNTY NEWS

TWO-MILL LEVY UNDER DEBATE

Proposal to Be Submitted Nov. 4 Is Discussed at Meeting in Lisbon Tuesday Afternoon.

The meeting of the township trustees and clerks with the county commissioners at the court room in Lisbon Tuesday resolved itself into an all-day session. They had been called together to discuss the merits of the proposed two-mill road levy which is to be voted upon at the November election. County Commissioner John H. Hinchliffe presided at the meeting. He gave a talk at the opening of the session telling what the proposition meant. The levy would raise approximately $300,000 each year and run for ten years. It would, he said, do away with the issuing of any more road bonds and would enable the roads to be built without paying half the value in added interest. He stated that without this vote the commissioners could make a levy of a mill and a half, but if they did this money raised could be used only on the main roads in conjunction with the state, but that if a two mill levy were voted only half more, the money could be used in the various townships and where needed most.

Frank Sweeney of East Liverpool gave a short talk on the proposed levy. He favored it, stating that unless this county did something for herself she would lose her share of the federal and state money.

A letter urging the adoption of the road levy was read from County Commissioner Philip Bowman, who was too ill to attend the meeting.

Louis Groglode of East Liverpool also spoke in favor of the levy.

Judge W. H. Spence stated that he was in favor of good roads, but he was not an advocate of such roads as are now being built in this county. He said that even before the East Liverpool Lisbon road is completed, it is beginning to give way.

J. R. Morrison took issue with Spence. He admitted that there were some roads that were going bad, but that was no reason why road building should stop. He found worse roads and more roads that had gone bad in Mahoning and other counties than in this county, he said.

Senator J. W. Gorrell of Carroll county, member of the highways committee of the legislature, made a rather lengthy address.

John Sumfitt, representing the coal miners and laboring classes, favored good roads, he said, because sixty per cent of the cost went to labor and remained in the community, and then we get the good roads.

City Auditor Burns of East Liverpool and other speakers argued that it is better to pay as we go rather than to issue bonds and pay out a half more than the roads cost in interest. Trustee Thomas Shreve of St. Clair township cited the case in their township of $20,000 road bonds were issued running twenty years, upon which the added interest will be $18,000, arguing that the township is paying almost double for the road.

In reply to questions from Trustee McBane of Liverpool township, Mr. Hinchliffe stated that townships would not be required to meet the money raised by this levy, as many of them could not do it, but that abutting property owners would be assessed ten per cent.

The fact that the cities are taxed to help build the country roads; that the city streets are improved without any cost to the country people, and the cities pay 57 per cent of the taxes, was also brought out.

A dozen or more trustees made addresses favoring the levy and upon a roll call to get their sentiments only two stated that they were not certain as to how they stood upon it.

Licensed to Wed.
Marriage license was issued Wednesday morning to Francis N. Ryan and Besse Boie, of East Liverpool.

PLAN TO DISCUSS CLASSIFICATION ISSUE

Patterson, who is opposed to the plan, will also be present and give his views, after which the discussion will be open to all.

FREMONT POST IS ACQUITTED

A Hanover township feud that rivalled to a degree the famous St. Clair township church trouble, was settled, so far as the courts are concerned, Tuesday evening, when a jury returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of Ohio against Fremont Post, who had been indicted upon the charge of petit larceny.

Post had up to a little over a year ago been sexton of the Hanover township cemetery. He was removed and a new man appointed. There had been some trouble over the abandonment of a road, it was reported, and Post was against the abandonment. This led to a neighborhood fight.

In August, 1918, more than a year ago, two pieces of timber that had been used as braces in a wire fence, are said to have disappeared from the cemetery. Some time after they had disappeared, wagon tracks were discovered leading from the cemetery to the road and tractors went out and traced the tracks, it was claimed, to Post's home. Later parties found two pieces of timber in the Post building that resembled the missing braces.

Almost a year after this discovery the matter was brought to the grand jury and Post was indicted. The value of the timber, which had been exposed to the weather ten or fifteen years, was fixed at a little over two dollars. It took the court and a jury and several witnesses all day to thrash out the case, but it took the jury only about ten minutes to return a verdict of not guilty.

PARADE

institutions will likely close in observance of the day.

In a statement issued Wednesday by the committee on arrangements every East Liverpool man who responded to the call to the colors during the world war, regardless of his affiliations with any established patriotic organization, is cordially invited to participate in the homecoming celebration. Handsome bronze medals bespeaking the gratitude of the city for the part it sons played in the world conflict have been provided for every ex-service man in the city.

In view of the fact that many local service men did not preserve their uniforms, no uniform or rank will be displayed in the street parade Friday afternoon. Private Eddy Post No. 4, American Legion, the two local organizations in which service men are affiliated, will turn out 100 per cent strong for the parade, organization officials announced Wednesday. Civil war veterans and affiliated organizations also plan to take a prominent part in the parade.

R. D. Van Fossen, commander of General Lyon Post No. 44, G. A. R., has been named chairman of the parade committee. Other members of this committee are Charles Stephens, George Wright, W. S. Foulks, O. P. Andrews and Mr. Hodells. The line of march for the parade will be, arranged at Thursday night's meeting. Every business establishment and residence dwelling along the route of the parade will be decorated for the occasion. The parade will be so routed that the procession will march in review down the Honor Court to be erected along Broadway between Fifth and Fourth streets.

Mayor J. S. Wilson, Chairman W. H. Vedrey, Chairman H. B. Barth, members of the committee on arrangements, Civil war veterans and others will take their place on the reviewing stand and will supervise the distribution of the city's honor medals. Civil war veterans will perform the actual pinning of the insignia on the breasts of the ex-service men.

Immediately following the parade the crowd will go to West End park, where city championship honors on the gridiron will be contested by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Grands. This feature of the day's celebration will be under the direct supervision of Private Eddy Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars. Three bands will furnish music for the occasion.

The masquerade street dance in Broadway will be staged by East Liverpool Post No. 4, American Legion. Broadway will be swept clean and oatmeal scattered for the occasion. The section of street will be roped off and a cordon of police thrown around it to preserve order. The Ceramic City band will render a short program of "jazz" music, the Clarkson brass band a series of country "hoedown" selections and the Italian band some Italian dance music. The East Liverpool Male Chorus has been invited to present a selection of music during the dance. The chorus will appear at different parts of the street, once from the steps of the postoffice, Broadway and Fifth street; a second time from the Masonic temple and again from the reviewing stand, Broadway and Fourth streets. A local string orchestra will also be invited to aid in the dance program.

Chief Hugh McDermott, who has been placed in charge of the boxing tournament, has already secured several local boxers and has promised at least four-round bouts. A padded ring will be erected near the Croxall building for the boxing matches.

An honor court, brilliantly illuminated with clear and multi-colored incandescent bulbs and decorated with flags and bunting, is planned for the occasion.

The local Red Cross chapter plans to establish several booths down town from which to provide hot lunch to the ex-service men.

Dyspepsia and Home Life

What a Relief When All the Family Eat the Same Foods! Avoid Dyspepsia, Sour Risings, Gas—Indigestion from Breakfast Sausage to Dinner Mince Pie.

After mother has struggled two or three hours over a hot fire to do the cooking, it is no wonder that the family is often suffering from dyspepsia.

enjoyment when there is a dyspeptic taint among them. Of course, a case of dyspepsia or daily indigestion must be looked after. But it is far more to the point to prevent as well as to treat sour stomach, belching, water brash, etc., by such a valuable means as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Coddling the stomach with soft food and predigested stuff merely invites sluggishness.

Eat a little pork sausage for breakfast without fears; have a plate of beans and a piece of pie with cheese for lunch, and end the day with a real dinner, instead of a bowl of bread and milk. Follow each meal with a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet and get right back to your natural self.

These tablets digest food and assist the stomach to prepare the content for assimilation in the intestinal tract. Thus you get the practical relief and help which induces a better appetite and a greater freedom in the selection of foods. You will find Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets on sale at any drug store in the United States and Canada and are considered one of the inary hearing before Justice Allison Friday evening.

The eleven baskets of ware were recovered at Ellwell's home following his arrest. The crockery was brought back to the pottery and identified there as being that which disappeared over the weekend.

Ellwell at the preliminary hearing denied that he was in any way implicated in the robberies, for which Wilford W. E. Llewellyn of Chester and C. C. Edwards, a Parkersburg, W. Va., man, are being held.

Llewellyn, a packer admitted having doubled crockery orders to an East Liverpool store, the police say. The manager of the store is alleged to have shipped part of the ware to Parkersburg where it was disposed of. All three men are being held in the county jail at New Cumberland.

Ellwell is married and has three children. He was recently discharged from military service.

A DISCOVERY THAT BENEFITS MANKIND

Two discoveries have added greatly to human welfare.

In 1855 Newton originated the vacuum process for condensing milk with cane sugar to a semi-liquid form.

In 1883 Horlick at Racine, Wis., discovered how to reduce milk to a dry powder form with extract of malted grains, without cane sugar.

This product HORLICK named Malted Milk. (Name since copied by others.) Its nutritive value, digestibility and ease of preparation (by simply stirring in water) and the fact that it keeps in any climate, has proved of much value to mankind as an ideal food-drink from infancy to old age.

GAS RATE FOR CITY INCREASED

An increase of gas rates is in effect at the city water works plant.

The city of Wellsville will be compelled to pay an increase of nine cents per thousand feet, the rate going to 23 cents from 14 cents, according to an announcement at council Tuesday night by Safety Director Charles Ewing. Under the increased rates the gas bill at the water works will average about $565, said Ewing, an increase of $225. Though the price of gas has been advanced, it was pointed out by Ewing that it would still be cheaper to pay the required rates than to attempt to install coal-burning apparatus.

Mayor George B. Imbrie, in a communication to council in regard to the report on the times outstanding from the administration of Dr. Hamlin Barnes, said that they could not be collected at this date and for your information I refer you to Wilson's criminal code of 1918 which provides that suit or prosecution for the recovery of fines, penalties or forfeitures or for the commission of any offense made punishable by law or ordinance shall be commenced within one year after the violation of the ordinance or commission of the offense and not afterward.

Because of the fact that two members of council were absent Tuesday night, the session of the city was held. In view of the many bills and ordinances to come before the council, it was moved to adjourn until next Tuesday, Oct. 25.

T. T. Dunn, master mechanic of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh division here, asked council for permission to construct an overhead bridge on Main street at Fifteenth. It is to be built as a safety first aid and will assist the men in getting to and from their work without traveling through the railroad yards. The bridge, according to present plans and specifications, is to be built over the sidewalk at Fifteenth street with steps leading to the sidewalk.

Council promised action to remedy the muddy condition of Lisbon road near the county bridge. Reports submitted to council pointed out that after every rain the road there was rendered almost impassable on account of the fact that there is no drainage. Service Director Ewing was instructed to take the necessary steps to relieve the condition.

The report of City Treasurer Fred H. Eckfeld showing the following balances in the various city funds September 30 will be submitted to council at its adjourned meeting to be held next Tuesday evening. General fund, $510.20; water fund, $12,270.75; service, $1,153.33; safety, $280.57; health, $297.42; cemetery, $493.09; library, $914.83; soldiers' relief, $48; trust, $36.80; white way, $342.03; South street, $386.89.

GET SHIPMENT OF ARMY FOOD

Wellsville housewives will, Wednesday, sample some of the first shipment of government foodstuffs, sent out by federal authorities at Chicago and other distribution points in varying.

Part of the first day's order given to postoffice officials here arrived on sections of the country to aid in the fight against the high cost of living of parcel post as it was originally to have been sent. About seventy-five per cent of the first day's order was shipped. The remainder, stated a letter accompanying the shipment, would follow immediately by mail. No order was given for sending the order by freight instead of by parcel post, the original plan, said Postmaster Duty Wednesday. Postmaster Duty was also required to pay the additional charges incurred by freight but it is believed that he will be reimbursed by government authorities later.

The shipment of canned goods, including beans, peas, corn and other articles, were loaded into an automobile Wednesday morning and will be delivered to the persons whose orders were first forwarded to the Chicago distribution point. Orders were taken by postoffice officials here on three days, this shipment being the first day's order. Orders for the two remaining days, it is believed, will follow by mail.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects. Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c.

ROBERT LOUDON, AGED 62, OF HANOVER TWP., DEAD

Robert Loudon, 62, well known farmer and business man of Hanover township, Columbiana county, died at his home west of New Garden, Sunday morning, according to word received here by friends and relatives. Death was due to cancer and followed a six months' illness.

Mr. Loudon was born in Wayne township, Columbiana county and all his life was spent within the county, the home the past forty years being that where he died.

His wife was Miss Emma Young, the marriage occurring 37 years ago, she with fourteen children, eight sons and six daughters, surviving. The children are Harry Loudon, Pittsburgh; Lebert Loudon, near Hanover; Mrs. Nellie Strahn and Mrs. Rosa Humphrey, residing in the home neighborhood; Albert, Dewey, Howard, Arthur, Burdette, Paul and the Misses Lena, Lillie, Camille and Helen Loudon, all at home.

Four brothers and two sisters, Dayton Loudon, Painesville; William Loudon, Wayne township; Lincoln Loudon of Flushing; Bannan Loudon of Bedford; Miss Josephine Loudon, Wayne township and Mrs. Harriet Kirkwood, Wellsville, also survive.

Funeral services will be conducted from the home Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, interment to be made in the cemetery at Hanover.

FRIDAY IS "SAFETY FIRST" DAY HERE

Next Friday has been set aside by officials of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad yards here as a "safety first" observance day.

On Friday an instructor in safety first tactics, from Cleveland headquarters, will be sent to the shops at Wellsville for the purpose of explaining to the employees of the various departments the necessity for carefulness in the day's work in order to minimize the loss of life and limb on the system.

Officials at the yard said Wednesday that instructors would be sent to the various shops and departments along the division from Pittsburgh to Cleveland, in connection with the "safety first" campaign that is now being held by all the railroads in the country.

Supt. Horton to Speak.

A. D. Horton, superintendent of the Wellsville public schools, will make an address at the regular weekly noon day luncheon of the East Liverpool Chamber of Commerce Wednesday.

MAYOR TO BAN "ROUGH STUFF"

All the "rough stuff" in connection with the celebration of Halloween here is taboo, according to an official edict by Mayor George B. Imbrie.

Such pranks as tearing down gates, carrying off all removable articles and rifling refrigerators and in other ways destroying property and annoying residents will result in arrests, says Mayor Imbrie. Offenders, who are caught violating laws in this respect, will be severely dealt with.

Wellsville's soldiers, sailors and marines, who have been discharged from the service, have been extended an invitation by the East Liverpool committee in charge of the plans for the Halloween celebration to be staged there October 31, to take part. Boxing bouts, public dancing, music and many other features have been provided for the entertainment of the soldiers and others.

Officials Wednesday morning said that they thought it improbable that there would be any celebration of a remarkable nature staged in Wellsville this season on account of the homecoming affair for the discharged service men on that date in East Liverpool.

An Enemy of Womanhood.

The complexion, digestion and almost the complete personality of woman are dependent upon health. Woman's ills are her great enemy, as they cause bad complexion, dark circles under the eyes, headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, dragging-down pains and the blues, and often totally unfit her for a companion. The great American remedy for such conditions is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which has been restoring three generations of ailing women to health, and may be relied upon with perfect confidence.

RAILROADS TO TURN ALL CLOCKS BACK

The different division heads of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad system have been notified that a change in time will occur next Sunday morning at 2 o'clock.

All trains will be operated on the same schedule that is in effect at the present time, stated officials at the shops in Wellsville Wednesday, the only change taking effect being that which restores the time to that by which the watches of Wellsville residents were governed before the new daylight savings law went into effect.

Mayor George B. Imbrie Wednesday issued a statement instructing Wellsville residents to set their watches and other timepieces back an hour after 2 o'clock on Sunday morning, October 25, in keeping with action all over the country.

WELLSVILLE PERSONALS.

GIRL WORKERS AGAIN ON JOB

The dipping and warehouse departments of the two local potteries were in operation Wednesday for the first time since the strike of the dippers' helpers and the warehouse brushers was called about two weeks ago.

Settlement of the strike was reached upon the agreement of the chairman of the manufacturers' committee to consider the demands of the girls if they would return for a period of two weeks. While no promise was made as to what would be granted, the manufacturers have promised to meet a committee of the girls before the expiration of that time and go over the matter thoroughly in an effort to adjust the differences. From Wednesday on the girls will be paid according to the terms of the new agreement.

The girl workers who were affiliated with the N. B. of O. P. returned to their work Monday morning. Both of the local plants have been crippled in several departments because of the tie-up.

THE END OF DAYLIGHT SAVING.

East Liverpool will not be among the nation's cities to enact legislation to continue the daylight saving plan to the confusion of cities that comply with the provisions of the congressional measure.

As mayor of the city, J. S. Wilson, Wednesday, urged all residents to turn their clocks back one hour before retiring Saturday night, so that the new time will be effective Sunday.

Irrespective of the good or bad features of the law—and there is considerable dispute over the matter—East Liverpool will join with most of the cities of the United States on this time question. And the majority will turn the clocks back.

Because of the popularity of the measure with office workers and many factory employes, a few cities, among them Pittsburgh, Pa., and Boston, Mass., are considering the advisability of continuing the daylight saving plan by the adoption of municipal ordinances. Of course, if Pittsburgh and Boston want to take this action, it is up to their city officials. However, such a move, because of the restoration of the old time in other places, would prove confusing not only to the residents of the two cities, but also to their neighbors. And since all railroad schedules, commencing at 2 a. m. next Sunday, will be in accordance with the new time, it seems the sensible thing to turn the clocks back.

At any rate, irrespective of what other cities do, East Liverpool will follow the intent of the law.

D'ANNUNZIO'S FINE CEMETERY.

The Italian poet D'Annunzio, in Fiume, is a sight for gods and men.

Just as the allied council had the Fiume problem nicely disposed of, whereby through some plausible hocus-pocus arrangement Italy was to have Fiume and not have it, along came D'Annunzio prancing on his Pegasus and upset the whole business. He entered the old Italian, or Dalmatian, or Serbian city, or whatever it is, as a rebel against his own government, at the head of a band of mutinous patriots, and now holds Fiume for Italy, in spite of the Italian government and against the armed power of Italy.

The authorities at Rome fear to attempt to drive him out. His army superiors dare not lay a violent hand on him. The poet-dramatist, esthete-aviator rides on golden clouds, even as he used to when in his airplane he bombarded Fiume and Trieste with bales of his own poems. It is a congenial role. The firebrand that roused Italy to war flames fiercer than ever—and crazier than ever. He is on top of the world. He will sacrifice allied principles and mutual understanding and the welfare of Italy for his own insane dream—as if Fiume were what Italy fought for, or were worth a mess of spaghetti in comparison with Italy's real interests.

"My men are ready to die for our cause," he announces, "while I will not leave Fiume alive or dead. I have already chosen a fine cemetery, dark with cypresses, a small hill looking toward the sea, covered with laurel, where I wish to be buried."

Surely fate would be unkind if she denied so pardonable a wish to the hero-bard. If he were an American, he would land either in jail or an asylum—probably the latter.

D'Annunzio in his time has done good service to his country, though always with perverted purpose and distorted vision, as any sane person might expect from such a paranoiac poet. Now he can render Italy and the world no better service than to retire, as quietly as may be, to that "fine cemetery" before his lurid egotism has plunged his country into civil war or set the allies by the ears.

HAD, SUPER-HEN!

A ray of light breaks through the dark cloud enveloping struggling America. Alton E. Briggs, president of the National Poultry, Egg and Butter association, says that a super-hen is being bred, and before long the type will be common and reach the public, and the cost of living will descend, because they are super-hens, and their eggs will be two to three times as large as their present size, and yet these marvels can be produced at a cost not much greater than present prices.

Right in conjunction with this glad tidings comes the suggestion of the Department of Agriculture, that every back yard should contain its flock of chickens tended and groomed so as to give the greatest percentage of profit to the owner and the smallest percentage of annoyance to the neighbors.

May heaven speed the day! Who cares what becomes of the tulip bed or the pansies, who would keep clock golf, if in their place he might see a flock of super-hens strutting proudly about his yard, and know that in the intimate darkness of the hen house were super-eggs which would enable him to look his butcher and his grocer in the eye, a free man and unashamed?

Hail, super-hen! Bright angel of the new dawn! A nation awaits your coming.

NEW YORK LETTER

By O. O. MCINTYRE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22. — The Manhattan millionaire used to be an object of curious glances wherever he went. Necks craned at the opera, at the theater and on the streets. I remember running three blocks on Broadway to look into the brilliantly lighted limousine of the late J. Pierpont Morgan.

But that was before the war. The other day I passed three millionaires, known to me by reputation, in a walk from Columbus Circle to the Waldorf. Not a soul turned to look at them. Nobody can get a thrill over the mere look at a millionaire any more.

Conservative estimates based on income tax returns show that there are about 20,000 new millionaires since the war. Many of them are obscure and found sudden wealth literally thrust upon them. The majority live in New York, or, since wealth came to them, make their headquarters here.

Thus the millionaire passes the Manhattanese without the slightest show of being recognized. "Of the millionaires created since the war," says A. M. Andrews, a prominent investment banker of New York and Chicago, "it is not fair to assume a very great percentage of profiteers."

"Many men had this wealth literally forced on them. Men who perhaps had hoped to accumulate $100,000 during their lifetime have gone past this mark without recognizing it or remembering they had it until they found themselves in the millionaire class."

"During the past five years, the small manufacturer has become equal in wealth of his former leaders. We have seen the small investor make many thousand per cent on his securities, bought for income purposes, because he just happened to own shares in a small rather than a large corporation."

The truth is that war has always meant a redistribution of wealth—a new deal all around. The rise in Bethlehem Steel from 30 to more than 700 per share in less than two years, and of General Motors from 58 to 800 in about the same time, has become ancient history and forgotten in Wall Street. There are scores of other such cases—unheard of by the general public—which have brought the new crop of millionaires into their new and rosy existence.

The park commissioner of New York has a sense of the fitness of things. He has placed a number of benches in obscure wooded places—near great rocks and little lakes. He says frankly they are for people interested in metaphysics, astronomy and other subjects where solitude is an essential. Of course the benches lining the Mall where the lustre of the neat yellow lights take the joy out of lovemaking are for the married folk.

William MacHarg, who writes novels with his brother-in-law, Edwin Balmer, had an appointment to meet an editor in the lobby of the Astor the other evening at the dinner hour. When he arrived he hunted around for the editor and in going around a corner a man stumbled against him. "I beg your pardon," said the man. "I beg your pardon," replied Mr. MacHarg.

Ten minutes later his watch and chain were discovered to be missing. This is happening daily in all of the large New York hotels. The police seem powerless to stop the crime wave.

On West street there is a little restaurant frequented by the marketmen. Most of the patrons breakfast at 4 o'clock. Giant laborers order 12 wheat cakes at a time and drink five and six cups of coffee. It is said that the marketmen are the biggest eaters in the city. They are the only men who still chew tobacco—almost a lost art in New York. Healthy? They always greet the dawn with songs and figs. Dyspepsia is something unknown to them.

Famo Stops Baldness

It Kills Seborrhea—the Scourge of Healthy Hair

You need no longer be alarmed at the falling out of your hair.

There is actually a way to prevent it.

Science discovered that the scourge of baldness was due to Seborrhea, the disease that produces dandruff.

Two years ago science found Famo.

The formula was worked out and perfected as a specific for baldness, in one of the oldest pharmaceutical laboratories in Detroit.

It was given a rigid test in the hands of reputable hair specialists.

Its efficiency was proven in scores of cases in private practice long before it was given to the world at large.

Seborrhea undoubtedly causes baldness.

It is known now that Famo actually stops baldness.

Seborrhea produces dandruff and kills the hair.

Famo grows new healthy hair by making the scalp healthy.

The action of Famo is not that of a hair lotion or a massage which rubs out the dandruff.

Famo immediately penetrates the scalp. It feeds the glands that nourish the roots of the hair.

Famo dissolves the dandruff so that it actually disappears.

Better still it kills Seborrhea, the germ of dandruff.

It improves the lustre and the texture of the hair. It makes the hair grow thicker and faster.

Famo contains no alcohol. The persistent use of alcohol on the hair retards the hair and the scalp.

Famo retards grayness by keeping the roots and natural oil of the hair in healthy condition.

If your scalp itches, if your hair is dull and lifeless, if you have dandruff, it means that Seborrhea is working against the life of your hair.

You will find Famo on sale at all toilet goods counters and the better barber shops.

It comes in a convenient trial size at 35 cents, and you can buy an extra large bottle for a dollar.

Your money will be returned if you are not satisfied.

Seborrhea is the medical name for a morbidly increased flow from the sebaceous glands of the scalp. The seborrhea excretion forms in scales or flakes and is commonly known as dandruff.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush your Kidneys Occasionally if You Eat Meat Regularly.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid, which is a poison. If it is not flushed out, it will settle in the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

My food fermented and formed gas; I had heartburn and at times suffered from severe pains in my back. I had tried a lot of different medicines, but none of them seemed to help me, until finally I began to take Plant Juice. I want to go on record that Plant Juice is all that you claim for it and more. My appetite has returned and the gas has entirely left my system, and I feel better all over. I am recommending Plant Juice to all my friends."

SEEK TO KEEP STEEL PLANT

In an effort to induce the officials of the Weirton Steel company to reconsider their decision to quit operations at the Clarksburg plant and move the machinery and equipment at the works there to Weirton, a delegation of business men from Clarksburg, W. Va., visited Weirton, Tuesday afternoon, where they were in conference with heads of the company.

Announcement of the decision of the steel company to suspend operations at the Clarksburg plant, was made about two weeks ago, after the plant had been forced to close because of a walk-out of its employees in the nation-wide steel strike. The Clarksburg Chamber of Commerce since then has been endeavoring to adjust the trouble. As a last resort the business men have appealed to the owners of the mill.

The steel mill is Clarksburg's largest industry and its removal will mean a big set back for the town which has been booming for the last number of years. The plant employs 1,000 men, mostly skilled workers.

HEAR APPLICATION TO BOOST PHONE RATES

Hearing started by the Public Service Commission on the application of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company for a 20 per cent increase over the present Government rates to be applied in practically all the cities and towns in West Virginia. Evidence was offered by the company in support of its petition.

Protests to the proposed rates have been filed with the commission from nearly every city and town that would be affected if the rates should be allowed and counsel representing many of these municipalities are here for the hearings.

AVOID THE "FLU" BUILD UP NOW

You can Almost surely Escape the "Flu" and Grippy Colds This Fall by Taking Chasco-Vin a Most Palatable Body-Building Tonic.

Don't put it off—it is much easier to keep the "Flu" away than it is to cure it.

No one would have the awful experience of a year ago repeated hence all should take every precaution especially those who are weak, nervous and run-down. They absolutely need Chasco-Vin.

During the last epidemic thousands were safeguarded by taking Chasco-

Vin, a body-building tonic that does build.

It is the toning up of the system that counts in keeping the "Flu" away.

In conjunction with Chasco-Vin we advise using a good anti-septic solution for the throat and nose and also that the bowels be kept open.

Chasco-Vin is sold by Flick's Pharmacy, in East End, Carnahan's Pharmacy.

Who Wants the Saloon?

Ohio Voters Facing Important Issues

Here we are two weeks until election, yet there is much ignorance and misinformation concerning what will happen in Ohio should one or all of the four wet proposals be adopted.

The first proposed amendment initiated by the wets has for its purpose amending the Ohio Constitution so it will declare that 2.75 per cent liquor is not intoxicating. The purpose of this proposal is to permit the brewers to open beer saloons all over the state, and if the voters say 2.75 per cent liquor is not intoxicating, then these beer saloons will be open every day and night in the week and will sell beer to children as if it were soda water or lemonade.

Chemists and physicians say 2.75 per cent liquor is intoxicating and so do men who have been drinkers of beer. You certainly do not want these beer saloons in these towns and villages and at country cross-roads teaching your children the drink habit.

But, you say, Congress has passed a law in which there is a provision that liquor containing more than one-half of 1 per cent alcohol is intoxicating, and that the law of Congress will prevail over the laws and constitutions of the states.

That very question is now in the courts.

If the courts should decide that the state and not Congress has authority to define the alcoholic content of liquor, and should Ohio fix the content at 2.75 per cent, as the brewers propose, then the way will be clear for these brewers to open up unrestricted and unregulated saloons.

THIS IS THE MOST DAMNABLE PROPOSAL THE WETS HAVE PLACED ON THE BALLOT AND THE ONE IN WHICH THEY ARE MOST INTERESTED. IN FACT, THEY ARE SO INTERESTED IN IT THAT THEY HAVE MADE THE IDENTICAL DEFINITION A PART OF THEIR SECOND INITIATED AMENDMENT. IF YOU HAVE THE WELFARE OF THE CHILDREN OF OHIO AT HEART SMASH THESE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS AND SMASH THEM HARD BY VOTING "NO" ON BOTH OF THEM.

Not only does the second proposed amendment initiated by the wets contain a definition of intoxicating liquor but it also provides for the repeal of state wide Prohibition and re-establishing the license system and licensed saloons.

There are dries who should be better informed, those who argue that it does not make any difference if this wet amendment is adopted as the country now has war Prohibition, and in January will have constitutional Prohibition, and that Ohio will not become wet even if the wet repeal amendment is adopted.

Should Ohio vote to repeal Prohibition a yell would go up from the liquor camp to the effect that a reaction against Prohibition has set in. These wets will at once get busy everywhere. Next year a new Congress will be elected and a wet victory in Ohio will encourage the brewers to start campaigns in every congressional district in the country for the nomination and election of men who will vote to submit an amendment to the states to repeal National Prohibition.

Next year is also presidential year and if Ohio votes to repeal state-wide Prohibition the brewers and liquor dealers will bring pressure to bear on the national conventions of both political parties to prevent an endorsement of Prohibition.

WHY TAKE CHANCES? WHY NOT SETTLE THE QUESTION FOR GOOD SO FAR AS OHIO IS CONCERNED BY VOTING AGAINST THIS WET AMENDMENT AND THUS EFFECTUALLY CHECKING WET PROPAGANDA. A WET VICTORY IN OHIO MEANS ADDITIONAL YEARS OF HARD FIGHTING FOR THE DRY.

These two proposals initiated by the wets are on a ballot by themselves. Be sure and vote "No" on both these proposals.

Voters should not overlook the long ballot containing the two referendum proposals petitioned for by the wets. To vote dry vote "YES" on both these proposals.

The first of these proposals is on sustaining the Legislature in voting to ratify the federal dry amendment.

The dry who does not think asks, What if the voters do not sustain the Legislature? He says Uncle Sam will take care of the situation anyhow, and if the voters do repudiate National Prohibition, it will not affect the federal amendment.

This is exactly the position wets want the dry voters to take.

If Ohio does not sustain the Legislature in ratifying the federal amendment she repudiates that amendment and declares against it. This will mean that the wets will precipitate a similar fight in each of the other 14 states which have the referendum, in the hope of winning enough of them to bring the number ratifying the amendment below the necessary 36.

FOR OHIO TO REFUSE TO STAND FOR NATIONAL PROHIBITION WOULD BE A BLOW TO THE DRY CAUSE ALL OVER THE COUNTRY AND WOULD ENCOURAGE THE WETS TO CONTINUE THE FIGHT IN EVERY STATE. VOTE "YES" ON THIS REFERENDUM AND SUSTAIN THE LEGISLATURE.

The second referendum proposal has to do with the Crabbe enforcement code. The legislature passed the Crabbe law and Governor Cox signed it, but the wets prevented it going into operation by defeating the emergency clause which would have made the law effective at once.

Now the question involved in the second referendum proposal is this: Shall the legislature be sustained in passing the Crabbe enforcement law, or shall Ohio declare to the world that she does not believe in making the brewers and liquor dealers obey the dry amendment?

THE VOTER WHO BELIEVES IN LAW AND ORDER AND IN THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE DRY AMENDMENT WILL VOTE "YES" ON THIS PROPOSAL AND SUSTAIN THE LEGISLATURE IN PASSING THE CRABBE LAW.

It is vitally essential that every one of these four wet schemes should be defeated.

It is a far more important wet and dry election than that of last year, for the dries are now fighting to nail down the victories of the past quarter of a century.

The dry man who is indifferent in this campaign is either ignorant of the great issues involved or he is not as dry as he pretends to be.

IF OHIO VOTES WET NEXT MONTH IT WILL BE DUE TO STAY-AT-HOME DRY VOTERS. THIS IS THE ONLY HOPE OF THE WETS. SEE TO IT THAT EVERY QUALIFIED DRY VOTER IN YOUR PRECINCT KNOWS HOW TO VOTE AND THAT HE DOES VOTE.

MAY SEEK VOTE ON BOND ISSUE

That Chester voters may again be called upon in the near future to approve a bond issue for the construction of a new high school building was the statement made Wednesday by a member of the Chester board of education.

The Chester High School now has 60 students, the largest in the history of the city. In addition to this about 120 or 150 others are crossing the bridge into East Liverpool where they attend the high school of the sister city. Parents of these students must pay tuition to the board of education in East Liverpool in order for them to attend school there.

Three rooms in the Central school building are used for high school purposes. In case a separate building could be erected for high school purposes, the three rooms in the central building could be utilized for the grades, thereby relieving the crowded conditions in the grammar schools.

In an election called two or three years ago, Chester voters decided against a bond issue to build an addition to the Central building.

STORE OWNERS AND CLERKS GET REST

Chester business houses were closed Wednesday afternoon. This is true to every store in town with the exception of the drug stores and one clothing establishment.

This action was taken at a meeting of the Chester merchants Association on Monday evening when it was decided by the proprietors that their clerks were deserving of a half-holiday every week. But one local merchant it is said refused to sign the petition.

Big Lot of Hay Fever Jokes

But Kentucky Man Says—"People Who Belong to Hay Fever Colony are Kidding Themselves."

Wouldn't Be Any Rose or Hay Fever if Simple Home Remedy Was Given a Chance.

"Yes, there's a real NINETY-NINE per cent effective remedy for hay or rose fever," frankly states a druggist in a prosperous Kentucky city.

"But I don't expect anyone to believe me, because the treatment is so easy and the cost not worth mentioning."

"The annual crop of hay-fever jokes would be mighty scarce if people would get an ounce of Mentholized Arcline and by just adding water that has been boiled make a pint of liquid that will prove a real help to all who suffer."

"Many of my hay-fever friends tell me that by starting to gargle and sniff or spray the nostrils a few times a day the expected severe attack often fails to appear and in cases where it does show up is very mild and does not annoy."

"The Better Class of Pharmacists" who dispense Mentholized Arcline say it will greatly modify any attack even when taken three or four days after hostilities begin.

Go to a real live druggist when you get ready to make a pint.

TWO MEN ARE TAKEN TO JAIL

Willard W. E. Llewellyn of First street, Chester, and C. C. Edwards, of Parkersburg, W. Va., are being held in the county jail at New Cumberland, awaiting action at the November term of court on charges of grand larceny. The pair were taken to the county seat Tuesday by Chief of Police John Dolby following their alleged confession of having robbed the Taylor, Smith and Taylor pottery of $36 worth of table ware.

The two men taken into custody on information said to have been furnished by the proprietor of an East Liverpool five and ten cent store. The store, it is said has been buying ware from the Chester pottery for some time. Llewellyn, who is a packer by trade, is alleged to have included double the amount of the order when preparing it for shipment. Upon arrival of the ware in East Liverpool, part of it was again shipped to Parkersburg, W. Va., where Edwards is alleged to have conducted a store.

Llewellyn's bond has been fixed at $500, while Edwards is being held under $2,000 bond.

"I tried Don Sung and the results were far past any expectations. I got 419 eggs in 30 days from 20 hens while moulting. I think this is wonderful, as they hardly laid at all before while moulting." Frank Dougherty, 3940 E. 11th St., Indianapolis.

This may sound too good to be true, but it costs nothing to find out. We'll make you the same offer we made him.

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, tell us and your money will be promptly refunded.

HAVEN'T LOST A GAME

Defeated Follansbee Tanks
Who Will Play Antlers at Wellsville.

One of the big games of the season on the schedule of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will be played next Sunday afternoon at Martins Ferry when the Yanks oppose the Capitol Inns.

Manager L. R. Smith, of the Martins Ferry crew states that the prospects for his outfit this season are extremely bright. The Capitol Inns have not lost a game so far and are confident they can carry through their reputation. If they do, the squad deserves to be ranked head and shoulders above any other team in the valley as the majority of them have already tumbled. The Capitol Inns defeated the Follansbee Tanks, touted for valley championship honors, several weeks ago, by a single tally. The Tanks are considered as a first rank aggregation in lower valley districts.

The Wellsville Antlers will be given a real test when they oppose Follansbee next Saturday at Central park. The Antlers were defeated by the Toronto Tigers last Saturday at Toronto but a dispute over the Toronto team's single tally left just a bit of taint on the Jefferson countian's victory. Captain Bill Paisley of the Antlers stated that the touchdown was a questionable one but rather than take up a lot of time in useless arguing, in view of the fact that the game was taking place on Toronto grounds, let it go.

If Paisley's team defeats Follansbee at Wellsville Saturday and the Vets down the Martins Ferry team by a low score, it will make the betting on the Wellsville-Veterans game late in the season, interesting.

The Veterans will still be without the services of Captain Smith when they go against Martins Ferry. Smith is a valuable man and ordinarily his absence is keenly felt but if the Vets can secure the services of Steadman for the Sunday contest it is fully believed that Captain Art can take another Sunday's rest before donning the moleskins again.

Jack McLaughlin is also dubious about playing next Sunday. McLaughlin had his jaw twisted in the game with the McGraws last Sunday and for a time thought that it was out of place. McLaughlin will also be able to rest Sunday if Coach Coleman is sure that the Kapp-Wheatley-Steadman-Moore combination will work as well as it did several days ago.

When the Vets bang into the Belmont county aggregation, they will find a stiffer line than they plowed through Sunday. They will find fleet-footed backs in the secondary defense ready to mess up their end runs; and they will find too, that the Ferrisians have a rapid-fire system that is calculated to set the best of teams wondering at times whether or not they are coming or going. In short the Vets will have to step lively every minute.

THIRTING FOR KNOWLEDGE,
ENGLISH CROWD MUSEUMS

LONDON — Mummies are booming, and the British Museum is coming in to its own. The dust of ages is being stirred by large crowds, which daily follow the scholarly lecturer as he conducts a sort of intellectual Cook's tour through the corridors of time. Also at the South Kensington Museum there are large gatherings to "see the wheels go round" in the sections of science and invention. Either the public is being consumed with a thirst for knowledge, or the paucity of London's free exhibitions is causing a run on the available institutions.

SPORTING GOSSIP

Bill Watkins has just blown back to East Liverpool after a several weeks' sojourn in the sunny climes of California. He has a nice healthy tan that can be gotten only outdoors now. About the first question that he faced on his return here was, "Are you going to take charge of high school this season?" The questioner referred to the basketball squad. And Watkins' invariable answer was "I don't know." Watkins will have a big job on his hands without any extra coaching jobs, he says. He has contracted to do all the refereeing for Pitt, Washington and Jefferson, Muskegon, Bethany, and West Virginia Wesleyan. With that he'll have his hands full. In all probability though Watkins will assume charge of the Y. M. C. A. five. He has had charge of the local quintet for the past four years and is the choice of Y officials as well as the players themselves for a coach and director. With the large number of candidates who are expected to try out for places on the Y team, there will be need of a heady coach at the helm to sift the grain from the chaff. Watkins has not been asked to take the job yet but in all probability it will be but a question of time, a short time at that, before the Y men will be after him.

Charles Brickley has joined the graduates who are helping point Harvard for the Yale and Princeton games. Brickley is instructing the Crimson kickers in the art of booting field goals.

Predictions that there would be a shakeup of the Yale first team were made good when Laroche, quarterback, was shifted to the third team. Kempton, the brilliant halfback who starred in Saturday's game, has been tried at quarter yesterday and may be kept there.

Bill Roper is getting plenty of assistance in the coaching of Princeton these days. Red Lambert, star end in years ago, is on hand now to coach the Youngsters. He will give particular attention to end candidates.

Pitt's chances against Georgia Tech next Saturday looked gloomy today. Six of Warriors stars are in a bad way from injuries. It is feared De Hart will not be able to take any part in next Saturday's game.

W. & J. took their first scrimmage practice of the week yesterday in preparation for Saturday's game with Syracuse. Coach Morrow allowed his men to rest Monday because several are suffering from injuries.

Encountering stiff resistance at Sebring Sunday the Canton Independents lost 6-0. It was a hotly contested game and the Cantonians fought every inch of the way. And the Sebring Tigers continue undefeated. But if they escape from the clutches of the Veterans of Foreign Wars on November 11, Armistice Day, when they play at West End park, they will have every right to call themselves first-class. They defeated the Vets in the first meeting but since that time the East Liverpool team has improved to such an extent that the players themselves are certain of victory, although it will be a hard one. At Sebring Sunday, the Canton backfield could not get started, Sebring forwards breaking through and spilling plays before they were started. With a line averaging 190 pounds and a backfield both fast and heavy, Sebring looks big as a contender for county honors.

Although the Canton eleven lost, it put up a plucky game and fought to the end. Twice the Canton club held the hometowners for downs when Sebring was within Canton's own 10-yard line.

Hugus, Sebring fullback, scored the only touchdown of the game. In the first quarter Guht ran 80 yards for a touchdown, but the ball was declared dead by the referee and the touchdown did not count.

Canton lost a chance to score in the second quarter when End Barnhard intercepted a forward pass and ran 30 yards. He was downed on Sebring's 12-yard line. Canton carried the ball to the three-yard line, but then lost it on downs.

Jack McLaughlin, Veterans of Foreign Wars, fullback, wants to get back into the game already. He is anxious to play against the Grands, formerly the Irishtown Indians, in their championship battle to be staged at West End park October 31, but it is very doubtful if he will get into the battle. McLaughlin, it has developed, played the entire first quarter and part of the second in the game with the East Palestine McGraws with an injury to his jaw. On the kick-off Kapp got the ball and while forming interference for the runner, McLaughlin was knocked down and felt the heel of a McGraw boot strike him just below the temple. Feeling that the injury was only a small bump and that it would go away as the game went on, McLaughlin said nothing about it and played on. However, after the second period had started the Veterans' fullback felt himself growing dizzy and time was called. He was removed from the game and Steadman took his place. McLaughlin and Smith will both likely be out of the game with Martins Ferry Sunday. Smith will, in all probability, be ready to play when the Vets stack up against the Grands.

YOST PREPARING TO MEET STATE

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 22.—Eyes of the football world are centered this week on the Ohio State and Michigan football camps. The clash next Saturday between "Hurricane" Yost's Wolverines and Coach Wile's Buckeyes, is expected to have a lot to do with the settling of the western conference championship for 1919.

Of the 15 games between the two teams, Michigan has won 13 and tied two. Of the 13 defeats handed the Buckeyes, 11 have been shutouts. In these games, Michigan has rolled up 369 points, while State was forced to be content with 21.

In the two years—1916 and 1917—that the Wileos men copped the western conference honors, Michigan was not a member of the conference. Buckeye supporters believe that 1919 is to be the year in which Ohio State secures sweet revenge for all the humiliation heaped upon her in the past by the Michigans.

Michigan has no Harley, they point out, and it is doubtful if Yost has a backfield man who is the equal of Stinebaugh.

Michigan's line which includes the redoubtable tackle, Captain Gus Goety, is admittedly good, but State rosters point with pride to the heavy Buckeye line which in three games so far this season has allowed only four first downs to be registered by opposing teams.

And while the State defense was holding the opposition scoreless, the scarlet and gray scoring machine was piling up a total of 133 points.

Ohio will be represented by a large crowd of rooters when the game starts next Saturday. Besides the crowd of State boosters that will go from Columbus, reservations have been made by fans in Akron, Toledo, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Dayton and Springfield.

ITALIAN PEN? THEN IT DOESN'T WRITE, SAYS POET

LONDON — The poet d'Annunzio, dictator of Fiume and antagonist to America and England, was recently present at a reception in Italy where he was asked to sign autograph books, according to Albert DeCourville, composer and producer of revues.

A young lady handed him a fountain pen. D'Annunzio examined it. "This is American," he said, handing it back. "I won't use it."

Another young lady handed him a fountain pen with the remark that it was made in his own country. "An Italian pen, eh," he said. "Then it doesn't write."

Doctor Issues Warning And Tells How to Stop
Tobacco Habit

New York: Dr. Connor, formerly of Johns Hopkins Hospital, says: "I am often asked if I know anything to stop the tobacco habit, and I always recommend Nicotol, which I have prescribed with great success. Nicotol contains no habit forming drugs, is absolutely harmless and produces astonishing results in a very short time. The use of tobacco saps the vitality, vim, vigor and ambition of the slave who is enthralled by its seductive effects. It undermines the health and leaves the victim an easy prey to general debility, throat and lung troubles, nervousness, insomnia, heart trouble, kidney trouble, headache, tongue and lip cancer and even blindness. Physicians the world over often trace the start of the above diseases and many others to nicotine poisoning."

If you want to free yourself from tobacco go to any drug store and ask for Nicotol tablets. Take one tablet after each meal and in a short time you will have no desire for tobacco—the craving will have left you. With the nicotine poisoning out of your system your general health will quickly improve.

Note: When asked about Nicotol tablets, one of our leading druggists said: "It is truly a wonderful remedy for the tobacco habit—away ahead of anything we have ever sold before. We are authorized by the manufacturers to refund the money to every dissatisfied customer and we would not permit the use of our name unless the remedy possessed unusual merit."

Nicotol is sold in this city under an iron-clad money-back guarantee by all up-to-date druggists, including Chas. T. Larkins.

HIGH GRIDDERS
FACING HARD
FOE THIS WEEK

Robinson's Men Will Meet Rochester High There Next Saturday.

WILL PRACTICE HARD

Beaver Countians Defeated
New Brighton Saturday
by Lone Tally.

East Liverpool High school will try its luck on the road again next Saturday. Robinson's men are scheduled to meet the speedy Rochester school aggregation, at Rochester and are preparing for a hard game.

Defects which were so obviously noticeable in last Saturday's game with East Palestine, will be remedied by Coach John Coleman this week when the Blue and White practice at West End park. In all probability the line men will be given a good shaking up. Both ends of the line fell down badly Saturday and permitted plays to come through them that were inexcusable. For some reason they lost their heads and were unable to act as a unit. In the second and third quarters of the game was this especially visible. The East Palestine backs waded through large holes through tackles and just off tackles for big gains time after time. And the linemen fell down when they were called to open up for their own backs. In fact their playing was anything but pleasing to Coach Coleman.

The loss of the East Palestine game sets the East Liverpool team back in the race for county championship honors. Wellsville, Salem and Lisbon are now the leading teams.

Of the three Wellsville is the most promising contender. The Orange and Black will play Lisbon next Saturday at Lisbon and will meet the Quakers at Central park a week from Saturday. If they come through the two games without defeat they will be only a single obstruction. If they remove East Liverpool from the race Thanksgiving day, the laurels will be theirs without a question.

Rochester High defeated New Brighton by a single point last Saturday, the third time in three years. The score was 7-6. The game was one of the best high school engagements that has been staged in Beaver county in past seasons, it is claimed, and was always in doubt up until the last few minutes of play when Rochester with a lead of one point began a steady march up the field, ending with the ball on New Brighton's fifteen-yard line. The referee's whistle prevented another possible score.

The New Brighton lads outweighed the Rochester eleven, it is claimed, but the latter team's speed and general knowledge of the game proved them superior to their opponents.

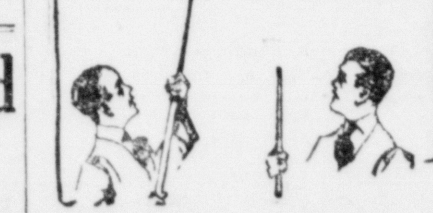

With the stigma of Saturdays' defeat hanging over them as a reminder that no team is beaten until the score at the end of the game proves it so, the Blue and White will work hard this week to put themselves in shape for the coming contest.

TWINS WILL BE OPPOSING CENTERS WHEN
YALE AND PRINCETON ELEVENS DO BATTLE

"Tim" Callahan of Yale, at left, and "Mike" of Princeton

One of the oddest little battles ever staged in collegiate football may be witnessed when Yale and Princeton clash in their annual football battle November 15 in the Yale bowl.

Here's the why.

Captain "Tim" Callahan will play center for Yale and there's a good chance that his twin brother "Mike" will play the same position for the Tigers.

According to the college football experts this will be the first time in history that brothers have opposed each other directly although brothers have been on opposing teams before but in different positions where they were not pitted against each other.

In 1894 the Pennsylvania-Princeton game presented this situation. Mitchell Rosengarten played end rush for the University of Pennsylvania. His brother Harold played left half for the Tigers. The game was played at Trenton. Harold was sent around his brother's end frequently, and how Mitch did nail him!

Ridge Hart was playing halfback for the Tigers in 1901 when they tackled Yale, and his brother Johnny was playing in the backfield for Old Eli.

It is and odd fact that Yale and Princeton seemed to have cornered the players in these brotherly affairs.

Archie Bell Says:

"Less than 10 years ago, when barefoot dancers were shocking audiences, someone prophesied that the time would come when they would present 'Mother Eve' on the stage. Well, that time is here. Maurice Tourneur has made this picture 'Woman' in which Eve's antics in the Garden of Eden are just one episode in the story. But she sets the pace for what is to follow, and as Mrs. Leslie Carter used to say 'The public isn't interested in good women.' Mr. Tourneur must have been of the same opinion, and they are really much more interesting to look at (in the films at least) in the days of Eve and her other daughters scattered over the centuries. The photoplay 'Woman' may be a trifle naughty, but when you come to think of it, 'Venus' has been talked about by some of our best people and probably appeared to be a trifle skittish to her immediate neighbors. Maurice Tourneur is an artist."
